The undersigned applicant(s) certifies that any family members who will use this membership and the undersigned applicant(s) do not have a criminal record. The Club may terminate this contract in its sole discretion should this applicant (or any person using The Club under this membership as otherwise permitted by The Club regulations) have or later acquire a criminal record. Upon such termination, the prorated membership fee, if any, for the remainder of this contract period shall be returned as liquidated damages to the terminated member upon removal of the member’s personal property from The Club.

The undersigned agrees to pay The Club for any expenses incurred by The Club resulting from any reasonable eviction or other action against him/her, or any other removal of persons or property from the Park. This includes, but is not limited to, the cost of removing any structures, fixtures, or other materials left on the property, as well as any reasonable attorneys fees related to any eviction, collection or other action, or other removal of persons or property.

The undersigned, member or guest of The Club, hereby acknowledges as consideration the facilities and services supplied by The Club, and hereby releases The Club, its directors, and its corporate owner (Prairie Lane Park Corporation), agents and servants from any and all claims, demands, action or causes of any kind or nature by reason of injury or damage and/or loss to person and/or property while a member or guest on the premises and facilities. Applicant further agree to indemnify and hold harmless The Club, its corporate owner (Prairie Lane Park Corporation), directors, officers, agents, servants, successors and assigns for any claims by applicant, family members, and guests for any personal injury, injury to property or death, which may occur on The Club property or the property of its corporate owner (Prairie Lane Park Corporation). This indemnification is joint and several. Applicant, family, and guests are assuming the risk of personal injury, injury to property, or death upon entering The Club property or the property of its corporate owner (Prairie Lane Park Corporation).
